

English

Dragon Machine by Helen Ward

Fiction: Story with an adventure focus

Major Glad, Major Dizzy by Jan Oke

Recount a diary entry from the point of a toy

Explanation

Information texts

An eyewitness diary entry of - 'The Great Fire'.

Newspaper accounts

Descriptive Poetry writing (London's Burning)

Maths

2.2 Structures: multiplication representing equal groups

Measurement: Length and Height

2.3 Times tables: groups of 2 and commutativity Part 1

2.4 Times tables: groups of 10 and 5, and factors of 0 or 1

2.5 Commutativity doubling and halving Part 2

Measurement: Capacity and Volume

2.6 Structures: quotitive and partition division

Geometry: Position and direction

Science Everyday Materials

Looking at a range of different materials and using words to describe how they feel.

Where do materials come from?

Man-made/ natural?

Sorting materials using different categories

Modelled experiment.

Which material would be the best insulator?

Independent experiment: Which material is the strongest?

Which material would be the best umbrella?

Modelled experiment: Will a block of ice in a warm place melt more quickly than a block of ice in a cool place?

Intermediate experiment: Which object will melt the first? Chocolate, ice-cream, butter, wax.

Art/DT

The Great fire of London

Colour mixing, observational drawings, use iPads, textured rubbings, use of papier mache, 3D boxes

Geography

My World

Seven continents and five oceans

Looking at maps and atlases

History

The Great fire of London

Timelines

'The Great Fire of London'
Spring

Year 2

Computing

Making Music

Pictograms

Internet research on the Great Fire/Plague.

Powerpoint to illustrate the Great fire and facts.

Music

Exploring pitch

Exploring instruments and symbols

Listening to fire sound effects

Uses instruments to create own fire sounds

Sounds to accompany fire images - compose fire music

Listen to extracts from 'Dance Infernal du Roi' from The Firebird (Stravinsky)

RE

Who is a Muslim and how do they live?

Why does Easter matter to Christians? (Salvation)

PSHE

Health and well being, Relationships

RSE

Changes: I can do, Being safe

PE

Gymnastics - Using parts of the body
Dance- Great fire of London roaring to life!