World Book Day

On Thursday, we celebrated World Book Day as a school. All the children from Reception to Year 6 visited different classes and read lots of books. We then sang, danced, drew, built, painted and created lots of exciting things inspired by the books we had enjoyed. Both staff and pupils alike had a wonderful day sharing in a love of reading.

Parents' Evening

It was so good to be able to invite you all in to school for parents' evening this week. I know that the teachers appreciated the opportunity to talk to you. Can you believe that it has been four years since we have had face to face parents' meetings!

This time last year, we had planned to hold one but had to cancel due to an outbreak of Covid!!

If I didn't have a chance to talk to you personally, I'm sure that I shall catch up soon on at the end of the day.
