Jubilee:

We have all thoroughly enjoyed our jubilee celebrations this afternoon; the weather has been perfect and all of the children and staff looked great: we had everything from hippy chicks, cool dudes, disco divas and even a couple of corgis!!

The circus performer entertained the children and Mr O'Reilly ran a class penalty shootout competition. Teme won the netball final and the class 6 girls performed their own dance which they had choreographed themselves. Finally the children enjoyed ice-creams from the van, kindly paid for by the PTA.

We also sung the National Anthem!

Thank you to Becky Taylor and all the wonderful kitchen staff for providing all the scrumptious food for our Garden Party and (of course) congratulations to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth on her Platinum Jubilee.

Chess

The school Chess team (very ably captained by Tom Curry) won a match against St Lawrence's School Church Stretton 25.00pts -12.50 pts: congratulations to all concerned and well played.

Have an enjoyable and restful half term

Mr Matthews
