St Laurence's C of E Primary School SEND Information Report

What types of special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) do we provide for?	Please see the school's Local Offer published on the website. The school pays attention to the 4 main areas of special need as detailed in the Code of Practise. They are Cognition and Learning, Communication and Interaction, Social Emotional and Mental Health and Sensory and or Physical Need. See page 1 of the SEND policy.
How do we identify and assess pupils with SEND?	Please see the school's SEND policy page 3 When the class teacher, SENCO or SMT, through the use of whole school tracking, identifies that a child is making limited progress, or progress not deemed appropriate to him/her, an intervention will be used and assessed for impact. Class teachers may also fill in a concerns sheet to alert the SENCO to an issue. Parents/carers may report an issue, which could be affecting a child's receptivity to learning. The class teacher, support staff and SENCO will gather detailed information and if progress following evaluation of support is still not fully appropriate, then that child, with parental permission will be placed on the Register of Special Educational Needs.
Who is the SENCO and how can he / she be contacted?	The Head Teacher retains overall responsibility with reference to additional SENCO services with Jenna Caine who may be contacted through the school. Tel 01584 872766. admin@st-laurenceprimary.com
What is our approach to teaching pupils with SEND?	Provision for children with special educational needs is a matter for the whole school. Tracking and assessment will be used to provide starting points for the development of an appropriate curriculum. Continued monitoring and feedback will form the basis of the forward planning for that child. Teachers plan and deliver appropriately differentiated work for all pupils. Pupils with additional support in class may have small group support and / or 1-1 support. Teachers will aim to work with all pupils as part of a rotational cycle. Class teachers mark according to the school's marking policy, and will engage in interactive commenting, they will assess the
